VOLUNTEER CODE OF CONDUCT AGREEMENT

We want to ensure that every participant is treated with the value and importance that they deserve. Therefore, I promise to strictly follow the rules and guidelines contained in the Volunteer's Code of Conduct as a condition of my volunteering for the Jimmy Miller Memorial Foundation.

As a volunteer, I WILL:

- Set an example in speech, conduct, attitude and demeanor that represents the JMMF appropriately
- Treat everyone (participants and volunteers alike) with respect, patience, courtesy and consideration
- Look out for the safety of all participants by monitoring their behavior and reporting any irregularities
- Avoid situations where I am alone with a child such as bathroom breaks or extracurricular activities outside of officially sanctioned JMMF events. Two adults should accompany children on bathroom breaks for safety and accountability
- Use only appropriate touch with children such as: arm around the shoulder, walking hand in hand, short congratulatory or greeting hugs, high fives, hand shakes, pat on the back or shoulder.
- Communicate all instances of breach of safety, injuries, difficulties or concerns as shared by the participants throughout the course of their participation to a JMMF staff member or the Director

As a volunteer, I WILL NOT:

- Use profanity, humiliate, ridicule or threaten any participant
- Use any physical discipline such as striking, spanking, slapping. Restraining a participant for their own safety or the safety of others should be done gently and with same sex volunteers whenever possible
- Engage in wrestling, tickling, or other acts of intimate touching
- Smoke or use tobacco products in the presence of children
- Use or be under the influence of alcohol or drugs at anytime while volunteering
- Meet alone with children outside of officially sanctioned JMMF events without prior authorization

I have read and understand the guidelines contained in the Code of Conduct for the Jimmy Miller Memorial Foundation and I promise to follow these guidelines, protect the participants as all times to the best of my ability and maintain a professional image of the JMMF. I understand that the failure to abide by these conditions may result in my temporary or permanent removal as a volunteer.

VOLUNTEER TYPES

Whether you are a Beach Volunteer or a Water Volunteer, both are critical parts for the JMMF to run smoothly and are both vital roles to our success. We welcome you to our family with all of your skills and talents!

Beach Volunteer

Beach Volunteers are key to a successful ocean therapy session. Responsibilities can include everything from carrying equipment to helping set-up food/beverages for any given session. Some responsibilities of the Beach Volunteer include:

- Assist in sunscreen/wetsuits.
- Assisting with our stretching sessions or yoga demonstration.
- Help with snack and lunch prep, as well as setup and breakdown of equipment.
- Applaud participants when a wave is ridden...they truly appreciate it!
- Documenting comments or successes observed throughout the day.
- Both land and water photography.
- Assist with building friendships and rapport with participants to aid in solidifying the effects of the day.
- Engage in discussion sessions.
- Help in any other way you see fit!

Water Volunteer

The water volunteer is an individual that may not be a strong surfer or know how to surf at all, but enjoys getting in the ocean and has basic ocean awareness. They are a crucial support to the surf instructor and complete the well-rounded experience for the participants. Responsibilities include:

- Beach Safety
- Assist with “catching” participants as their board meets the sand.
- Supporting the surf instructor during the lesson i.e. holding the participants hand as they walk out through the surf.
- Bodysurfing with participants if warranted.
- Spending time with participants when they need to stop and take a break from surfing.
- Water Photography
- Participating in discussion sessions i.e. sharing the participants’ successes in the water with the group in hopes of inspiring self-confidence.
- Giving tons of High 5’s

Surf Instructor Volunteer

The surf instructor volunteer is a crucial part of our success. We strive to maintain at least a 1:1 ratio of participant to surf instructor. We find that with this ratio the participant’s success rate increases as well as their comfort level. We also like for our Surf Instructor Volunteers to have surfing knowledge or experience and some experience teaching. If you do not have teaching experience, we will gladly help you learn some of the amazing techniques Jimmy created over his 15 years of experience.

Some responsibilities of the Surf Instructor Volunteer include:

- Helping in “on land” surf instruction
- Assisting with board choice i.e. length to size ratio and wetsuit sizing.
- Critiquing the “get up” technique i.e. assisting with stance, knees bent, feet wide, goofy or regular, etc.
- Pushing participants into waves i.e. holding onto the board and letting go when the participant is stabilized.
- Ensuring they do not pearl (nose dive)
- Giving positive reinforcement and encouragement throughout the day.
- Water and beach safety- your most important role!
- Talking the participant through each aspect of being in the water i.e. “now we’re going to push up”, “hold on tight”, “this is a lull” or “Is it ok if I put my hand on your back?” etc.
- Being aware of the participant’s various needs i.e. a child’s back ground or a Marine’s injuries.

- Participating in discussion sessions i.e. sharing the participants' successes in the water with the group in hopes of inspiring self-confidence.
- Giving tons of High 5's
